5	Is it necessary to have science, humanities and commerce streams in every EMRS?	As per the policy, every EMRS should have all the three streams i.e. Science, Humanities and Commerce at senior secondary level. However, Choice of the subjects / Stream is to be considered as per the willingness of the students/parents. Forcing a student to study in a particular stream by the school is not correct. Streams are to be allotted as per the willingness expressed by the student/parent. As per the policy of NESTS, 90 students are to be admitted in Class XI. If more students are willing to study in a particular stream than 30, opening of second section of the same stream may be considered. With regard to combination of the streams, depending upon the interest of the students, number of sections/streams may be decided. All the efforts are to be made to ensure study of 90 students at Senior Secondary classes.
