Subject: Clarification regarding qualifying the Regional Language Proficiency Test upon inter-state transfer on administrative/public interest grounds.

With reference to the subject cited above, representations have been received in this office seeking clarification regarding the applicability of the Regional Language Proficiency Test in cases where an employee is transferred, on administrative/public interest grounds, from one State to another.

In this regard, it is hereby clarified that the concerned employee may opt to qualify the language proficiency test of either of the two States involved, i.e., the previous State or the present State of posting.

This issues with the approval of the competent authority.
